

LEAGUE RACING

World Class Formula 1, Indy Car, IMSA and NASCAR drivers all emphasize the importance of fun and excitement of kart racing. Nearly 90% of current Formula 1 drivers began their careers in karts, including Fernando Alonso and Lewis Hamilton. 75% of current and past Indy Car drivers, including Michael Andretti, Marco Andretti, Paul Tracy and Tony Kanaan, also started out in karting, and NASCAR racers Jeff Gordon, Tony Stewart, Jamie McMurray and Juan Pablo Montoya were kart racers first. Do you think you have what it takes to join famous names like these? Show up, suit up and go, with Velocity 17 League Racing. Indoor Karting at V-17 is the most affordable and easily accessible form of motor sports, year round. There are no start-up costs, no short race days due to mechanical failures and no rain outs. We provide helmets, neck braces and karts, all you have to do is register and get racing!
